

PRAYER SURVEY

Take a few minutes to rank the following statements on a 1-5 scale. 1 being that the statement on the left closely reflects your engagement with prayer, 5 being that the statement on the right most closely reflects it.

I talk to God regularly throughout the day.	1 2 3 4 5	There are many days when I don't pray at all.
I have a dedicated time in my day that I set aside for prayer and reading the Bible.	1 2 3 4 5	When I pray it is at random intervals.
I believe that God always hears and answers prayer.	1 2 3 4 5	Most of the time I feel like God isn't really interested in hearing from me.
When God appears to say 'no' to my prayer, I realize it is for my own good.	1 2 3 4 5	I find it difficult to accept "no" as an answer.
When God answers my prayers, my faith is strengthened.	1 2 3 4 5	When prayers appear to be answered, it's really just a coincidence.
I usually spend time praising God and giving Him thanks when I pray.	1 2 3 4 5	My prayers are just like a shopping list of requests.
When I have a problem and don't know what to do, I immediately take it to God in prayer.	1 2 3 4 5	When I have a problem I usually try to figure it out on my own and only go to God in prayer as a "last resort."
When I don't feel like praying, that's when I pray even harder.	1 2 3 4 5	If I don't feel like praying, then I don't.
I feel comfortable praying with other people.	1 2 3 4 5	I feel embarrassed or inadequate when praying with others.
When someone shares with me that they are going through a difficult time, I naturally ask if I can pray for them.	1 2 3 4 5	When someone shares with me that they are going through a difficult time I'm too embarrassed to ask them if I can pray for them.
After praying I feel a sense of God's peace.	1 2 3 4 5	After praying I feel no different than before.
I feel like my prayer life is growing.	1 2 3 4 5	I feel stuck when it comes to prayer.